Additional Information:

California law requires business entities that prepare an original or amended return using tax preparation software to e-file their returns or be subject to a penalty. If you paper file this California return, verify that you have completed a California Business Entity e-file Waiver Request. The waiver request form must be completed within 15 days of filing the return. Go to https://www.ftb.ca.gov/professionals/busefile/Business_eFile_Waiver_Request.asp to complete a Business Entity e-file Waiver Request.

Form 199 is not considered a valid unless signed by an officer of the exempt organization. Assemble the tax return in the following order: Form 199 and the supporting schedules. Do not use staples or other permanent bindings to assemble the tax return.

2023 California Electronic Filing Instructions

These instructions are provided to help you understand and complete the final steps for electronic filing your California State return. We HIGHLY recommend that you print these instructions for your reference.

Please note: You are responsible for confirming the status of your electronic filed California State return.

You can confirm the status of your return by going to: efstatus.taxact.com. You will need to enter the entity's EIN, ZIP code and company name.

Do not mail Form 8453-EO to the California Franchise Tax Board. An authorized exempt organization officer is required to sign Form 8453-EO and retain the completed form for four years from the return due date or accepted date, whichever is later. The return has been successfully filed once an acceptance from the California Franchise Tax Board is received.

No Paper Documentation to California State:

It is not necessary to send paper documentation to the California Franchise Tax Board related to your return.
